

Beginning of the Trip to Iowa

By: Arjana Lamichhane

“What do you want?” I mumbled as my sister woke me up.”It’s time to get ready.”said Aakriti.Me,my family,my cousin,and his wife, were going to Iowa to visit my aunt and her baby.The baby was 1 year old and we still hadn’t seen him yet.So we were going to visit.

When we got to my Aunt’s house, they greeted us with a warm welcome and showed us the baby.(I forgot the name)They let us explore the house after taking care of the luggage.Me,my sisters,and my cousin,(he is a boy)played some games like Monopoly,Life,and other games.By the time we were done playing games,it was time to eat.We had breanie for dinner and we also had some juice.When we were done eating,it was time to sleep.So we brushed,got into our pj’s and got the bed ready.I got my own room and my sisters and my cousin shared a room.

When we woke up the next morning,we ate eggs and bacon for breakfast.Then we played with the baby for a little bit.

Since we were leaving that day,we decided to take a quick tour of the city and take some nice photos.We went to a park,a small beach and other places that I don’t remember.And we had a great time that day.And we also got some ice cream.Then after that,we left to come back to Michigan.And I think this was around labor day
