

The first time having my own room

one day on september 24 2017. we moved in to our new house and I saw my new room. I loved my new room I put all my stuff in my room. I decorate my room for 1 hour my room was fixed for me to sleep in my room and I loved it. But before we moved I had to share a room with my sister but when my sister is not in her room I would get in her stuff but I hate sharing a room with my big sister.
