My first day at school.

When I was little I was going to school I was so excited I was thinking about school like who will be my teacher,can my mom come?,who can be my friend. I didn't know what to expect on my way to school. And my mom was worried she didn't want me to go to school she thought I was going to be bullied or something but I was not bullied......

 when we got to my school I was super excited I wanted to rush out the car!. Then when I was going to go out the car and I said to my mom bye and she also said goodbye have a good day learn a lot. I went to school I did not cry but my mom did. (at first I did not know she was crying till a month ago when i asked her) then..my journey began going to school.

I went inside the school i was so amazed i thought my mouth was going to open what they had inside was a lot of stuff. i went to my classroom i saw new kids i would like to meet my teacher said hello welcome to the first grade your seat is right over there here are your classmates so she introduced me to the students and soon i would make some new friends
