

My story is about school bullying zach is the bully. Zach bully's connor and steve helps connor. Steve sees connor being thrown against a locker steve quickly ran over and got involved in the fight and steve and zach started fighting. Connor who was being bullied quickly ran and got a teacher. The teacher came over and stop the fight. then zach walked away stating catch you later girls.

Steve's heart was beating fast Steve asked connor if he was ok. Connor said good. Steve said I can't get used to doing that and then connor said i got used to getting beat up. Then steve said you don't now. Im here to protect you. Even though steve was a 6th grader.

Connor then said that he was in 7th grade. Steve stated that connor that he was extremely petite. Connor stated that steve was extremely big for an 6th grader. Then steve asked connor did we have to worry about zach any more. Connor said I doubt he will go away i think he will be back.

Connor said he was kind of scared steve said he did not have to be.
