

The Talent Show

One day 4 friends named Rebecca, Summer, Jayce, and April. They were at Jayce room on the bed when summer got a email saying that there would be a talent show in 3 weeks. So they all thought of signing up at the same time they all said "I WILL WIN THIS THING" Then they all looked at each other in a mad way. Then Rebecca said "umm you guys know that I will win so like there is no way you guys will be able to win duh". So then April said "ok first of all how are you guys going to win it depends what you guys are going to do. Rebecca said she would paint really quick something fast, then Summer said she would do flips and all that. Then Jayce said i will do comedy by that she would do jokes but the problem was that she was not funny at all, And of course April would sing she the best voice in the HOLE SCHOOL so she would probably win.

After that they all went home to tell their parents that there was going to be a talent show and they would sign up for it. The next day they saw each other and but they did not talk they were to upset to talk to each other cause they all wanted to win but they knew only one person could so that would mean they would do anything to win. They would practice in their backyard and the worst part was that they were all neighbours so they could look at each other. Sometimes they would even say mean things to each other like you suck! Or like if the judges would like that act or your voice sounds like a dying GOAT. The talent show would be next week already on a Friday. They all got to school and then lunch came by none of them sat by each other and did not even dare to say hi or how are you not even a single word. Summer had got up and got chocolate milk and had put beans in it and said to April "April i am so
