

THE BIG SURPRISE

BY: LEAH BELLANT

It was almost my birthday , my dad said "what do you want?" I said " a bow so I can hunt with you!" "we will see" said my dad.A few weeks later me and my dad went for a ride. " where are we going ?" My dad said " You will see ". When we arrived my eyes opened so wide. My dad started to laugh because my eyes were so wide and i was laughing so hard. As soon as we walked in I said "wow !" He said " do you want a colored bow or a black and white bow? I said " COLORED OF COURSE" I started to look to all the cool stuff in the store. MY dad called me over and told me to look in the book , at some bows while he talks to the guy. After about 15 minutes I told my dad that I liked the purple one on the shelf. He said " ok" The guy talked to my dad to see if I could try and shoot it and my dad said "yes" I tried it. On my first time I got it on bullseye! On my first and second time I hit the white part. ON MY 4TH TIME.....I almost hit my dads hand! I had the sharp blades on to . But he was fine. He said "SHE IS ACCURATE !" SO we went home without my bow. Soon like 2 weeks when I went to my dads house it was there! I practiced and practiced for about 12 weeks. My dad said "do you want a different color cord? "I said " Yes" We went back to the store to change the color of my cord I changed mine from purple to black. My dad changed his cord to red and dark green. He got a new release for me and him. (something to release the cord of your bow because you can't use your hand ) He gave me this tool so I could keep my arm up when I release my bow. He said " if you don't keep my arm up I can mess up the way I shoot or my arrow. He gave me his old one because he got a new one. He bought me my own target to shoot. He got his bow & mine so we could shoot the targets. When we were done we went inside to eat dinner and hangout with family.
