

Makayla 5-15-18 Personal Narrative:Horrible Girl Scout Camp Experience...

At first when I heard there was a Girl Scout Camp I was like "Oh No." and I begged my grandma not to let me go but she told me, "Just go, you'll like the camp. It'll be fun." So that basically meant, "You're going, and that's that." And before I knew it, it was the day before Girl Scout Camp, and I had to pack, so I got my sleeping bag, Swiss army knife, a flashlight and extra clothes and stuffed it in my bag. Then one of the troop leaders, (Mrs. Kirsten) pulled up in the driveway. I said goodbye to my grandma and got into the car with my stuff. Zahara, Aisa, Paige, and Rita were already in the car, we talked and talked. It felt like forever until we were at the camp. And before I knew it, 30 minutes later we were at the campground, and while we waited for the rest of the troop to get there, we unloaded our stuff from the van, and about 10 or 20 minutes later Dr. Chantal (the main Girl scout troop leader) pulled up in the gravel, it made a Crrhhhhh sound and it hurt my ears. Xander, Alexa, and Hailey got out and the trunk popped open and they unloaded their stuff from Dr. Chantal's car when she got out she went to talk to Mrs. Kirsten about our camp schedule and other camp things. We left our things lying on the grass. When they finished talking which was 10 minutes later, they yelled at us for leaving our stuff on the grass and told us to pick it up, but we didn't. It was almost noon so we had to set up the tents anyway. The troop leaders taught us how to set them up, and we had to work together because it was a hard job. They told us it was a 10 person tent. When they told us that we were completely puzzled and they told us it meant it could fit up to 10 people in the tent. After the tents were set up and our stuff was unpacked and in the tent, about half an hour at about 7 or 8:00(p.m), we sat down to eat, we had Cucumbers, Juice, peppers, chips, and even more delicious food, it was awesome!

When we finished eating we sang Gs camping songs. When we're done we went to our tent also Paige's grandma had to sleep in our tent acting as a chaperone to make sure nothing bad happened also to make sure we didn't stay up all night. When we got in the tent it was already 8 or 9:00. For some reason, Rita went in her bag and all of a sudden.... she bursts out crying! We all gathered around her, I asked "Rita! Are you okay? Why are you crying?! What happened!?" She said through tears "Something moved in my bag! And it pinched me!" We all gasped and Paige's grandma took her bag to take it outside to see what it was, and we all started guessing what it could be, I said: "It could've been a spider, let's get real, we're in nature!" Paige said a crab, and Hailey said a lobster but she was just being silly. That went on for 2 minutes until Paige's grandma came back and told us what it was and she got rid of it (I forgot wut it was XD). We all let out a sigh of relief because we were worried it would come back for revenge. So we unzipped our sleeping bags and got settled, it was soooooo squished!!
