

When I Went To Texas

On My Own

My grandma and I just sat down at the airport. I was about to head o first class on flight 304. I also had a discount to go because my grandma works at delta. "Flight 304 pleas start boarding" said the speaker. My heart is pumping really fast. As I walked down the walkway my grandma said "I paid for a surprise." the farther I walked the more I wondered what is the surprise?

Just as I walked on the plain I was confiscated by a girl who worked on the plain she says she knows my grandmother. "Hi my name is sam" she said. Then she took me to see the captain
