

Well one day me and jason were playing at the park then we meet some people there names is jack and bell. then we went to my house and partyed there then we went to sleep. The next morining we all woke up and ate some breakfast. Then we then all took shower then we got dress. Then jack told bell he hate him. Then jack and bell started to fight then bell went home then jack went home.

Then me and jason went back to the park we played then we started to walk home we seen jack we tryed to talk to him then then he ran away. Then we went home and went to sleep. Then i woke up the next morning then i was so sick and tired